

Testimony– My 9/11

Was it perhaps my fault? In some way, I was prepared for 9/11, since the day before, September 10th 2001, was my last active working day as a consultant anaesthetist. I only did not know what to be prepared for.

I was sitting over the computer and suddenly got the inspiration to see the homepage from BBC, as they just reported about the assault. Immediately I and my wife rushed over to the neighbour to see the incredible again on TV. That is very important, because Tony and Andrea are my alibi that my part in 9/11 was purely observant. I also cannot fly a passenger plane [but neither could any of the alleged hijackers, so at least it is important that I was in Europe at the time]. We saw the plane crash in the South Tower perhaps twenty times [On the day, only pResident Bush claimed to have seen from Florida the other tower being hit before, but such magical vision is only found by the wisest men, and the film for us mortals was only found days after]. Then we saw the towers collapse, one by one, that is to say, I only learned about the third tower, WTC-7, much later, because it collapsed several hours later and it did not fit in the model, as there were only two planes but three towers. Here comes my confession: I was stupid then (perhaps I am still, but then on other questions). In philosophy, I was told the difference between \leftrightarrow and \rightarrow : When it rains, the street is wet, but when it is wet, it does not necessarily rain. In this case, if the plane hits the building and it then later falls, it is not necessarily because it was hit by the plane. However, if you think of the good qualities in people, it is understandable that one does not think it was just a show-effect. Of course, you realized that immediately, but can you forgive me for using months?

But then the buildings fell, and the amount of victims was in focus; 50,000 worked in the two towers and 140,000 visited the buildings in total daily, so it could be worse – perhaps also because only 17,400 were in the WTC as the first plane hit. At first, it was expected that there were 30,000 victims in New York. It could also be better, because the employees of the South Tower were asked to stay after the North Tower was hit, and the mayor of New York, then Rudolph Giuliani, did not enter his emergency post in WTC-7 because he was warned; if he had shared this knowledge with the fireworkers, 343 of their men could have been saved. In the end, some 2,750 humans were killed in New York on 9/11, but many hundreds or thousands more can be counted as the victims there, because the concrete of the buildings, mixed with asbestos and other toxic fumes, was distributed over Manhattan, where it caused much misery and delayed death, for which no statistic is held. Only dust and steel was piled up at what was soon to be known as 'Ground Zero,' and among the dust was found termites, remnants of the explosives used for the demolition. Other indication of the prepared destruction is given, but not all wants to hear about it. Let me then congratulate the masters of the demolition, a tribute concealed by the fact that most people will not accept the crime, but still a phantastic effort, were it not for the many people killed thereby.

In the springtime 2002, I saw Thierry Meysan's humorist webpage, 'Hunt the Boeing' [1], making it obvious that no big plane ever touched Pentagon. That was my motivation for searching more. Books of Matthias Bröckers and Andreas von Bülow lent me further insight, to which came an abundance of internet pages. It led to my obsessive collection of pictures & videos and the conclusion, 'Who were Responsible for 9/11?' which not only brought me friends. Then, as the years passed and press and politicians failed to take notice, some friends thought that 9/11 was losing importance. To me, it resulted in scepticism: if this obvious crime remained obscure for these persons (although only superficial digging suffices to reveal grave occurrences), no confidence can be placed in mainstream media and the political parties. Various occurrences fixed that attitude, most easily determined by the attack in London on July 7, 2005 (I also have an alibi for that time). The resulting scepticism prompted me to revise history well back in the 20th century as well as a loaded cautiousness in the evaluation of new occurrences. I realised that those who claim to protect us often are covering the real terrorists – which I then started to write about (but I shall save the reader patience for other examples here).

Disturbing is the absolute lack of reaction to this work. The propaganda is eaten for good, confirming that if you repeat a lie often enough, it replaces the truth. I tried then to include it in a different context, in fictions: 'Duodecameron' in 2005 in Danish, later translated to English and German and so far only published in German [2], so far five stories about Mr. Smith (A Nero Wolfe-like detective in Denmark, but written in English), and some short-stories in all three languages.

In conclusion, I maintain that the 9/11 remains a crime to be cleared up. It is not something that can be buried in history. Many people are still dying today – on a daily basis – because of 9/11. Neglecting its true causes is becoming part of the crime. Sounds perhaps aggressive to you, but failure to understand it has consequences for us all.

The Earth is Flat - Again

In the Medieval Ages, it was a widespread belief that the earth was flat. After all, the men with the best connection to heaven could confirm this as a fact. The ones who thought otherwise were running a considerable risk, as shown in the process against Galileo. Thus, this claim remains an outstanding example (among several) that a claim through steady repetition by 'authorised' people blocks for further brain activity on the matter.

I find it necessary to adopt this explanation when searching for the reason why many 'authorised' people, who are definitely no idiots, repeat the official fairy-tale behind 9/11 (idiots may do it as well, but that is another matter). Obviously, they are blocked from considering some simple facts behind this atrocity, which they only consider a historical event, not worth dealing further with. Such facts, among several others, are, e.g.:

- The three WTC skyscrapers (1,2 & 7) were demolished independently of the two planes which hit two as a theatrical effect;
- Pentagon was not hit by a passenger jet;
- Such was also missing in Shankesville;
- Osama bin Laden, who was dependant on regular dialysis and who died in December 2001, had nothing to do with 9/11; and
- The many attempts to conceal elements of the crime points to their authorship.

These examples suffice for the beginning – to make curious for more studies. However, it is easier (and perhaps beneficial for your career) to rely on the 'experts' and their eternal conclusions. And now when we, helped by 9/11 and the new 'American Inquisition' are on our way back in a new middle age, it is perhaps only reasonable to await those experts will reveal and endlessly repeat that the earth is flat. In that case, learn from our experience after 9/11, don't play Galileo – stupidity wins. Yes, the earth is flat and 9/11 was organized from Afghanistan (et cetera).

Conspiracy theorist arrested for claiming that the earth is round (current press release) – if Gallilei lived today, this might be the headline of the mainstream media.
